BOOTLEGGERS ADVERTISE

If there is one line of business where advertising would seem to be not only unnecessary, but a distinct liability, it is a bootlegger. Nevertheless, one of these gentry, in an Indiana town, appears to think otherwise. He uses an old white mule in his bid for trade. A sign on a stable "A white mule for sale" attracted the inquisitive. If they passed inspection they were told another kind of mule was for sale, which had no legs but plenty of kick. If a suspicious looking person appeared he was shown the actual mule, for which an enormous price was asked.

If you think there's nothing in patriotism, just try to knock a man's home town! It's a fine way to start a fight. The folks at home are big folks to you.

Good times are coming, said Thomas A. Edison today. The tide already has begun to turn. Times are getting better now, slowly of course but surely.

Francis Busted, former general superintendent of the C.P.R. and one of the best known railroad construction superintendents of the west, died of heart failure at his home in Vancouver on October 2.

Damage to the extent of $1,000 was caused by a fire in Otis Berryman's garage last Tuesday. The fire was started by burning paper in a lean-to next the house. Part of the building and the top of a car was damaged.

In the new Federal Cabinet, Presbyterians slightly outnumber others, seven being of this faith, including the Prime Minister, and of the remainder, five are Anglicans, five Methodists and four Roman Catholics.

Here and Hereafter

Rev. Mr. Hayes Delivers Interesting Sunday Sermon

Last Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Hayes took for his theme "The Hope of Immortality." "Some years ago," said the minister, "the emphasis was put too much upon another world, to the neglect of this, but the last while we have gone to the other extreme and thought in terms of the here and the now, to the neglect of life beyond the present. Both types of thinking are extreme and we are coming to recognize the fact.

It is interest of more than ordinary importance to note that all reason is on the side of the man who believes in immortality, and immortality of the individual."

Here the minister asked the question, "Does the idea that this world is everything prove satisfying?" Some work and live with no thought of anything beyond life here, and they live noble lives, but when we come to the end of the road, they find that frankly confess that such a viewpoint is anything but helpful.

The final question is this: "Is the universe rational? Is there a God? To an all-wise Providence this can not be the best of worlds. It can only be the preliminary of a better world beyond. Who in this world can reach the pinnacles of knowledge, or happiness or service? All is fragmentary here and life all too short to more than make a start. But let us so build that we are making the best of life here, and keep alive the faith and hope that an all-wise Providence is fair and just and will render to everyone of us a true verdict.

The idea that life goes on is a tremendous incentive to good work. It takes us out of our petty thinking and petty ways and bids us work with our attention on the main issues of life. No good deed is ever lost—no life well-lived is lived in vain and we may be sure God does not cast aside the workmen that have served Him.

THANKSGIVING DAY ON NOV. 7

Legislation passed at the last session of parliament provides that the Monday of the week November 11, the anniversary of Armistice day, falls shall be Thanksgiving day. Thanksgiving day this year will thus be Monday, November 7.

INDIANS VERSUS IRISH

"That 'self-determining' clause in the League of Nations has turned the heads of more men than Mr. de Valera. Now we read that the Six Nations Indians of Ontario are claiming that they are not amenable to the laws of Canada in that they are an allied nation of Great Britain. The argument of the Indians is as sound as that of the 'President of the Irish Republic.'"

Last week's Alberta stockyards receipts were as follows: horses, 276; cattle 1,703; hogs 799; sheep 3,940. Corresponding week a year ago: 185; 5,564; 298; 2,395.

ONLY A YARN

Charles Scott, safety expert, delivered an address in Baltimore recently, when, by a coincidence, the entertainment feature which preceded his talk was an "impalement act" by a couple of vaudeville performers. In that connection Scott recalled the following story: "An impalement act expert of the early days used as his assistant a beautiful young woman, who posed fearlessly against a wooden background while the 'artist' outlined her figure with knives, spears, and battleaxes. At the finish of the act the girl would step smilingly from her framework of cutlery, and bow to the audience. On one occasion, however, when the girl became ill, the man had to scour the town for some one to take her place, and the only one he could find with nerve enough was a girl who was homely enough to curdle milk by looking at it. When the man poised the first knife, took careful aim, and sent it hurtling toward the board, a gruff voice in the gallery was heard to exclaim: 'Blowed if he ain't missed her.'"

THEIR FAREWELL

Choir Holds Social in Honor of Their Leader

The choir of the Union church is an organization of exceptional excellence, and credit for much of the success it has attained is due to the leader, Mrs. Marshall Gooch, who will leave here in a short time to become a resident of Chicago. Members of the choir gave a social in her honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Simington Monday night of last week, and the event was made the occasion of an expression of the appreciation of the services rendered by Mrs. Gooch as a musician and citizen, and if she realizes the sincere wishes of her choir associates the future will surely be full of success and pleasure. The program of the event included cards, games, music and supper. One feature was the writing of a farewell in rhyme by the members of the party, and one of these follows:

A farewell party is given here,
Near to our friend has grown,
Endeared to us, though not our own.
Good-bye, farewell, to you adieu,
Oft in the future we'll think of you,
On all your kindly acts we'll ponder,
Con them o'er the while you wander,
Here's a good wish to you and yours.

The Chautauqua to be held at the theatre here October 11, 12 and 13 will be your last chance to see and hear the best in vaudeville, music, singing and lectures for some time, and this at a price of forty cents a performance. Season tickets $2.00 each from the committee.

POULTRY KILLING

Egg and Poultry Marketing Service at Vulcan

The secretary of the Poultry Association had a letter from Mr. G. M. Cormie, Edmonton, Dominion Poultry representative, under whose direction the culling of poultry flocks has been so successfully carried out for two seasons, to the effect that the egg and poultry marketing service is undertaking a community poultry killing at Vulcan during the last week in November and continuing until December 15.

The arrangement is that all birds from the district will be assembled here on a certain day or days which will be announced later, and the service will send expert killers and pickers to dress the birds, and after they are cooled, grade and pack them in standard boxes for shipment to the best market available.

At the time when the producer brings in his birds they will be weighed and market price paid. Subsequently if any surplus is found over the paid market price it will be distributed pro rata among the producers.

The educational features of this project will be found in the demonstrations relating to the grading, killing, dressing and packing of poultry for market. All farmers will be encouraged to lend a hand at the killing bee, thus helping to keep down the cost of preparing for market.

DON'T FUSS, REMIT!

O blest is he who does not fuss, when he receives a bill from us, but promptly sends us the amount, where-with to straighten his account, and doubly blest is that good friend, who waits not till a bill we send, but knowing his subscription's due, sends us the money to renew.

Public notice one week in advance of all marriages is one of the legislative reforms that the executive of the social service council of the Church of England wants to effect in the Canadian marriage laws.

The Dollar Dance, which is held here every Friday is certainly gaining popularity. It is a dance that is only in Vulcan, but in other towns, as was shown by the immense throng who attended the dance Friday evening last. The hall was filled to capacity by nine-thirty and the splendid music supplied by Ober's orchestra was enjoyed by all present. We warned dancers in last week's issue to be there at nine o'clock, so they could be assured of admission and they were there before nine o'clock. The committee are to be congratulated on the wonderful success they are making of this dance.

COMMUNITY CLUB

Members Discuss Important Subject at Recent Meeting

Members of the executive of the Vulcan Community Club at a meeting held Wednesday night discussed several topics of general interest and decided to renew and increase the activities of the organization.

It was decided to re-petition the Provincial government for permission to use the land reservation known as number one as a recreation ground for children. This matter was undertaken once before without success, but with a change of government there is a new opportunity and the club will try again.

The committee decided that the club should promote the proper observance of Armistice Day, Nov. 11, which is also Thanksgiving Day. The proposed program will include an address to the school pupils, musical selections by the band, and an address by Mr. D. H. Elton. Definite details will be announced later.

The question of a municipal hospital was discussed and the secretary was instructed to secure from the Minister of Health the details of procedure in connection with the establishing of such an institution. The hospital idea has general support in Vulcan and vicinity and will soon be a subject for consideration by the ratepayers.

Plans and programs for the coming season were suggested and the club will no doubt give to the community such entertainment and pleasure as it has in the past.

GIRL'S CLUB

Local Organization Holds Successful Meeting

A meeting of the Women's Institute Girls' Club was held at the home of Miss G. Davis September 27. There were nine members and six visitors present. Two new members, Miss Edna McFadden and Miss Gretchen Micks, were enrolled.

After the business had been discussed the meeting was adjourned. Games and music were then enjoyed, after which refreshments were served.

Bob was always in the lime-light, having taken an active part in all kinds of sport. The last two years Bob has been manager of both the baseball and hockey team and has handled these in a professional way. We wish him the very best of success in his new position.

The Canadian Chautauqua put on such a fine bill here a year ago that the business men guaranteed their contract for a return engagement this year. On looking over the talent and the program offered this year we believe it is the best ever offered Vulcans in the Chautauqua line. Season tickets are only $2.00 each, reduced from $2.50, juniors $1.00. Positively no tickets sold after the opening performance at less than $2.50 each. ## PREVENTION WEEK

There is at least one act of the Dominion government which will have the favor of all people of all political parties, and that is the creation of what has been termed "Prevention Week." This week this year begins on Sunday, October 9, and ends on the following Saturday. Its importance will be readily recognized by all who can be induced to stop for a moment and think. Large expenditure of money has been made by the federal government and provincial governments in a more or less successful effort to minimize loss and destruction by fire, costly agencies being employed for the purpose, and efficient officials have contributed a considerable measure in combating what to a large extent is chargeable to the carelessness of the citizens in general. Prevention week is to inter-duce these citizens in a project that can be made a direct and immediate benefit to themselves, their community and the country. We give this part of our contribution to the understanding and urge that all men—men, women, too—will this week do their duty.

Attention is called to the fact that more than 200 persons in Canada annually lose their lives as a result of fire, in addition to which is the irreparable loss of money, and the loss of natural resources. This imposes a burdensome tax upon industry and thrift, and substantially adds to the cost of living. Furthermore, it is estimated that at least 80 per cent. of the fires are due to inexcusable ignorance or neglect. During fire prevention week, citizens are recommended to inspect their homes and stores and other buildings, remove rubbish and otherwise reduce fire hazard. Hotel, theaters, asylums and hospitals should be inspected, and any changes made necessary to perfect safety from fire. Fire drills for children and factory employees are recommended, and special instruction for teachers and the distribution of appropriate literature to pupils. Co-operation from municipal authorities, as well as from those who made a livelihood in the forests, is sought.

The Canadian fish catch for the year is estimated at 138,000 hundred weights. This does not include the well known variety, one of which is said to be born every minute.

The grain pool will be an important subject for discussion in connection with the coming Dominion election, but it will have to divide the interest with the two-bit and one-bit pools that will be made throughout the country on the result of the election.

There does not appear to be safety in drink of any kind, even the soft variety. The explosion of a soda-water tank in a drug store at Erickdale killed a returned soldier who came through the great war unhurt.

Twenty years ago The Calgary Herald reported the discovery of a flock of wild turkeys in the vicinity of the city. But things have changed and now it is the chicken of the wild kind, right in the city that receives so much attention.

The Ku Klux Klan, which of late has received much publicity and has been the object of much adverse criticism by churches and other organizations, has at least one thing to its credit. In answer to its foe, William Joseph Simmons, the supreme head of the Klan, has invited the United States government to investigate the activities of the organization. This is not in defence of the K.K.K., but is a note in comparison with a different method, which seeks to blot government investigation by invoking the injunction plan and otherwise creating delay by tricks of the law and lawyers. And this latter organization is Canadian, and not American.

All subscribers to this paper who pay up their subscription to the end of next year on request will have The Canadian Farm Power magazine mailed free to them for one year, the regular price of which is $1.50 a year.

The grazing leases in Alberta and the other western provinces have been reduced by the Dominion government from four to two cents per acre, the order being made to assist the livestock industry, and this is but one of the several moves made by the government for this purpose.

Hon. R. G. Reid, minister of Health appeared in Calgary recently and delivered an address that stamps him as a man befitting the position he now occupies.

It keeps most of us jumping to keep alongside of our running expenses.

There are sixty-six electric railways operating in Canada, and during the year 1920 only thirteen—this time a lucky number—of these declared a dividend, and there were forty-one which showed deficits. So we see that some of these great concerns, which are often referred to as "big interests," and like suggestive names, do not always make the rake-off and big money which is sometimes imagined.

The deliberate destruction of $30,000 worth of furniture by a frenzied man, is advertised as a feature of a moving picture. This suggests the story told of Uncle Reuben, who when reading of a burglary in a nearby city and the theft of $10,000, exclaimed: "Thank the Lord, Hanna, such a thing can't happen in our house."

So long, Arbutus; no matter what the court may sentence, the jury—in this case the public—says you can't come back. Though there may be some who make heroes of this class of stuff, it is to the credit of the people that there is sufficient to put the ban on his last performance.

The reciprocity that is most necessary to Canada is that which should exist between a prosperous farmer and a successful manufacturer who employs well-paid labor.

The Farmers' Sun makes the silly statement that the Meighen Government's campaign will be based on "appeals to class and creed, race and religion." The editor of the Sun appears to be a very young and inexperienced man. In the history of Canada there never has been a political leader less likely to appeal to ignorance, passion or prejudice than Arthur Meighen. He is a Canadian to be proud of; and the strength of the government's position lies largely in the conspicuous and absolute straightforwardness and integrity of its leader. It is idle for the Sun, or any other paper, to sprinkle its pages with such meaningless vapourings.—Orillia Packet.

It has been authoritatively stated that almost everything that grows can be made to produce alcohol, and we have the evidence of a man we know who says that it must be so, for much of the hooch we get now-a-days tastes like it—a combination of the whole lot.

Notices were recently posted in the entrances of a Montreal church to the effect that Christian modesty must be practiced by women in regard to their wearing apparel, even if denial of the sacrament has to be enforced as a means. This is getting very close to a show-down on the question of modern dress. Church fashion creates an awkward problem for the women.

The British Columbia Manufacturers' association, by a unanimous vote, has passed a resolution in condemnation of the methods of horse-racing and deprecating the fact that an undesirable element had been in control of the statement was made that some of their customers had been playing the races so much that they had not paid their grocery bill for months. It is significant that an association of this kind has given such consideration to the question. Sport, that is real sport, which should be a pleasure and a benefit to everybody, is too often permitted to pass to the control of the undesirable class. Sport should have the patronage and protection of the better people.

NEWSPAPER COMMENT

The Sentinel: If Canada gets a population of 8,500,000 it will be considered to have made a wonderful advance in population in the past ten years. In the ten years from 1901 to 1911, the increase was about 50 per cent., but in the previous ten years the percentage of increase was only about 10 per cent. In 1911 the population was about 7,200,000, and if it were 8,500,000 now, that would be a gain of 18 per cent., which is considerable, too high in view of the stoppage of immigration on account of the war and the exodus of many people of foreign birth after it.

Detroit Journal: Before the war the average family of five paid in the United States about $33 per capita for the cost of government. This meant $165 a year; the cost is now $214 a year. In Great Britain the cost per family has jumped from $102 to $148; in France from $123 to $233; and in Italy from $71 to $643. The ratio of increase in national debts in these four countries has been nearly 1,000 per cent.; in military expenditures it has been about 350 per cent. and for other governmental expenses over 700 per cent. These figures show very clearly the pressing need for economy in expenditure and for increase of output; and they are a potent argument for the disarmament of the nations.

Toronto Saturday Night: Ship joiners on the Massey, Tyne and Clyde, are on strike, and in consequence a great British industry is at a standstill. On the other hand the shipyards at Bremen, Emden and Hamburg are merrily engaged in working up many hours as a day permits. British ships which required the services of ship joiners (carpenters as we would call them) have left their dockings on the Tyne, the Clyde and the Mersey and proceeded to the German shipyards for completion. One of the vessels now being "dolled up" by the German workmen at Hamburg is the new C. P. R. liner, Empress of Scotland, which will be the largest vessel to operate in the St. Lawrence when she runs to Quebec next summer. The Empress of Scotland was formerly the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria and was purchased a few months ago from the Reparations Commission. It was necessary to refit her, and as this could not be accomplished in the British yards, the company did the obvious and sent her to Germany where ship joiners are not striking out working.

Los Angeles Times: It is not very long ago that California was complaining over a dearth of teachers. The professionals, who had been teaching the young idea how to shoot, were either shooting Germans in Belgium or shooting craps at the shipyards. There was more money in other occupations. But the pay of the teacher has been advanced to a reasonable figure and various laws have been passed to improve his or her position. As a result a position as teacher in almost any of the California schools has become desirable. If $1,400 is to be the minimum wage it is surely a great improvement over the days when country school-teachers were paid $35 a month. Now it appears that trained and competent teachers are coming into the State from all sections of the country. We can have our pick of the Massachusetts pedagogues. It takes more than 1,000 instructors to satisfy the school situation in Los Angeles county but there is an army of teachers ready and waiting. Some of those who spent much time in battling for money and measures on behalf of public school-teachers are now finding themselves without jobs. They have made the field so desirable that the pick of the profession can be had. The country school-teachers of Vermont and New York think it paradise to have a desk in Southern California and educators gather in numbers here, from all sections of the land.

Winnipeg Free Press: There is, perhaps, some room for hope that public opinion will manifest itself so unmistakably against clap-trap buncombe and appeals to prejudice from whatever source they come that those responsible for the campaign of treating the electorate like intelligent Canadians who are already concerned over conditions and are anxious to find a way out. The people were never so interested in politics as at present; and they have never been so little concerned as to the fate of parties. The times are, therefore, propitious for a political campaign of reasonable and moderate discussions, looking for a practical solution of some of our problems. The politicians who have not the intelligence to see that there is a demand for an improvement in the methods of public discussion will thereby confirm the public in the impression that they are due for permanent retirement.

The Guardian: We wonder how many men there are who are buried in their office, or store, or farm? "Born a man, died a grocer," ran the old epitaph upon the moss-grown stone; and it may have been startlingly true. They tell us a thorn is an aborted leaf; and some business successes may be but aborted humanity. Christianity has no quarrel with honest business. It never abuses a man for being a success. But it insists, in season and out of season, that the man is more than his business, and that the sons of God cannot afford to forget their high calling nor to allow themselves to be buried in any business, no matter how lucrative nor how important it may be. We must keep our souls alive. The man who becomes oblivious to the calls of a wider humanity, and who understands nothing but the story of his own business, has really died to God's great world, i.e., to all of it outside his own office. The home, the state, the Church of God, have all a claim upon men, and only by obeying their righteous demands can a man reach his highest level; but if he does listen, if he does keep alive to the great world outside his own business, he will at least avoid making that business his grave.

PROVINCIAL NEWS

Alberta Liberals will meet in convention at Calgary on October 14.

Commencing Oct. 1, the menu prices at all Canadian Pacific Hotel dining rooms will be reduced 16 per cent.

Nine divorces were granted at Edmonton in a week. In most of the cases, actions were undefended.

Possible candidates in the Bow River seat are Jesse Gouge, Drumheller, Liberal, and E. F. Purcell, Brooks, Government.

Colonel Sanders, magistrate of Calgary, had his home visited by a bold burglar who took away bonds and jewellery valued at $800.

Graham Duncan of Lethbridge was recently arrested while driving a high powered car and fifty cases of booze was discovered in the motor.

The mines at Blairmore only worked two days this week and one day last week. It is reported that they will operate three days a week this coming winter.

Sudbury residents are now drinking Florida water. Thirty-two cases were seized on Sunday by prohibition officers after the police had announced that 76 per cent. of the drunks arrested were imbibing Florida water.

If the Liberals in 1911 had not gone down to defeat fighting the battles of the farmers in the reciprocity pact, there might be some excuse for putting farmer candidates in every riding in Canada, declared Mr. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, at Digby, Nova Scotia.

Delegates to the Sovereign Grand Lodge in Toronto are said to have spent along with the cost of the meetings $7,500,000 there during the convention. This is equal to several years' payment of a large-sized industrial concern.

What is believed to be the largest single shipment of cattle of the year from the Edmonton Stock Yards, comprising twenty cars, containing 400 head of prime beef cattle, left there for Montreal, where they will be transferred to boats for shipment to Glasgow.

The Imperial Oil Company has actually commissioned the building of 43 cottages at Ioco at the cost of $3,000 apiece, and it is reported that as many as 60 are contemplated, involving a total outlay of close upon $200,000. About a dozen of these homes are now in actual occupation.

With ten horses entered at the Spokane Inter-State Fair, Calgary exhibitors brought away thirty-nine prizes and two championships. Both the championship and reserve championship for hunters were won by local horses, which took ribbons in practically every event in which they entered.

As a result of the work of the government treaty party, which has been in the Northland during the summer, 372,000 square miles of territory has been ceded by the various Indian tribes to the Crown and about 1,900 Indians, who hitherto had not been reached, have signified their willingness to accept the government bounty.

Two cents per acre, instead of four cents for grazing privileges in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and the Peace River tract, and Kamloops division in British Columbia, are provided for by order-in-council. The reduction is for one year, from October 1, and has been made in order to assist the livestock industry in view of the present high price of fodder and the low prices obtainable for cattle.

Alberta will have 12 seats in the next house of commons, British Columbia 13, Saskatchewan 16, Manitoba 15, and the Yukon, a total of 57 seats west of the Great Lakes. Ontario will have the largest representation, 82, Quebec is next with 65, Nova Scotia 16, New Brunswick 11, and Prince Edward Island 4. The total number of seats in the federal parliament will be 235.

Hon. T. B. McCurdy, minister of public works, speaking at Amherst in defence of Arthur Meighen, referred to the latter's ability, courage, firmness and devotion to his country, and his superb self-confidence which marked him out as a man who can safely lead us. The minister asked what Mr. King had done while Canada was fighting the war. "Oh," he said, "Mr. King was reserving himself against the day when, the war having been brought to a victorious end, thanks be to God who through the gallantry of our noble men has given us victory, he might go to and fro in the land seeking to make political capital out of things which were done or were not done."

The movement towards the union of the local Methodist and Presbyterian churches has been advanced another stage. On Sunday night the congregation of the Methodist church agreed to the proposal to enter upon negotiations, and on Tuesday night, at a congregational meeting at which Presbyterian's committee were present, all previous action in this matter was endorsed. It was also agreed to leave the preparation of a draft agreement with the Presbyterian's committee and the local pastor, in conference with a like committee of the Methodist church, such draft to be submitted to the congregation for final approval. Rev. W. McNicol who presided at the meeting in the Presbyterian church pointed out the awkward position in which their pastor was placed, and expressed Presbyterian's wish that the congregation would give Mr. Mitchell the fullest possible consideration as he sought a fresh sphere of work.—Clareholm Review.

A GROWING UNION

The Union of South Africa, over which General Smuts presides, contains four provinces, but is only a third larger than British Columbia, or two-thirds the area of Quebec. The movement now in progress for the annexation of the colony of Rhodesia, at present administered by the British South Africa Company, would nearly double the area of the Union by adding 460,000 square miles to the 473,000 now administered by the Union government. It would add 1,500,000 to the native population, with some 40,000 Europeans.

THE TREES OF OUR PLANTING

We saw an old man the other day planting trees and the thing looked to us both significant and interesting. If his enterprise prove successful it will be long after he has quit this mortal life that it will reach its fruition and men will rejoice in the glorious beauty and shade and fruitfulness which he has helped to create; and that thought ought to help to inspire him to do his deed with care and thoroughness. In the long after years men will thank him for what he has done. Is not all of life something like the planting of a tree? If we live it well, there will be many who come after us who will have reason to rejoice in the abiding beauty which we have helped to create. Sometimes life seems so fleeting and transitory that we wonder if it leaves anything behind it which abides, but is not all that is beautiful in our modern society and civilization the result of the fine, good living of individual men and women who have gone before? They planted their tree and it grew into beauty and fruitfulness, and today we are able to rejoice because they lived and loved and labored so well.—Guardian.

THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE

John and George, small sons of a Baptist minister after listening to one of their father's doctrinal sermons in which he set forth that baptism by immersion is essential to soul salvation, decided to baptize their family cats. The kittens made no objection and one by one were noused in the big tub of water, but when it came to the mother cat, she at once rebelled and fought and scratched until at last in desperation John remarked: "Just sprinkle her George, and let her go to Hell."

THIS MAN HAD LUCK

Proof of success in the irrigated section here is exemplified in a farmer named Williamson. After working as a hired man he rented an engine and ploughing outfit on an acreage basis and with the proceeds of one season's ploughing purchased an irrigated farm of eighty acres and broke it. In the fall he bought a threshing machine and paid for it through the proceeds of the season's farming and he owns a farm, threshing and ploughing outfit and tractor, all fully paid for.

INCREASE IN DRUNKS

Cases of drunkenness in 1920 numbered 39,769 against 24,217, an increase of 64 per cent. and there was a large increase in violations of the liquor laws. During both years under review, the convictions for vagrancy were a little less than 11,000. Fines paid on conviction for drunkenness during 1920 amounted to $315,099; and on account of breaches of prohibition and other liquor regulations $1,442,754.

WHEAT HIGHER IN CANADA

Commenting on the Emergency Tariff Bill and the prediction before its passing by its sponsors that wheat would sell for 25 cents a bushel more in the United States than in Canada, the Wall Street Journal says that "never since the tariff law went into effect has wheat in the United States sold higher than in Canada. The daily quotations show there was not a day in July when Canadian wheat sold as low as in this country." It actually averaged 25 cents a bushel higher in Winnipeg than in Minneapolis.

The latest government estimate of the wheat crop of Canada places the total yield at approximately 294,000,000 bushels, exceeding last year's crop by nearly 30,000,000 bushels.

For fishing in Sheep Creek, near Black Diamond, Mrs. William Walsh was fined $10 and costs. The charge of fishing in a closed stream was laid by H. Howie, fish guardian, the case being heard by John A. Grant, J.P., of Black Diamond.

R. D. Livingstone of Coaldale, is busy digging his fifteen acres of potatoes. The first four acres went 30 tons to the acre. With potatoes selling at $30 to $35 per ton, it means around $1,000 per acre yield. This is a pleasant change after so much 15-bushel wheat at $1.00 per bushel.

The Calgary Albertan is particularly anxious to have Labor, Progressive and Liberal unite in Calgary. If this union is not consummated the government will win and the Albertan will be sorely disappointed. Meanwhile, the Labor and Progressive parties do not appear inclined to join issues with a party that has Mackenzie King as its leader.

The members of the Alberta Women's Institute take exception to the dismissal of Miss McIsaac, superintendent of the organization. However, it would appear that the government was justified in what they did for Alberta has already a strong woman's organization, the U.F.W.A., and the opinion is held that the United Farm Women will look after the heads of the province in that connection.

J. N. Dwigans had the misfortune to have a stack of straw burned in a mysterious manner last week. The peculiar actions of a transient stranger in that vicinity led Mr. Dwigans to investigate and by Sherlock Holmes' methods assisted by the Provincial Police the stranger while declaring his innocence of having burned the stack was quite willing to settle for it.

We have numerous organizations in this district for men, but not a ladies' organization in the place. Most places have Institutes, U.F.W.A. or Ladies' Aid organizations, but not so in Ensign. Have our ladies no interest outside home? Have they no "go" or are they kept too busy "going" at home. Get busy ladies and show the men how to do things right. Get a Parent-Teacher association and improve conditions in our local schools, perhaps put a couple of interested mothers on our school board.

Speaking of schools did you ever think of the waste of money and the lack of efficient results from four or five small schools contiguous to Ensign. Some having as low as six pupils attending. If a modified consolidation could be tried out, one not involving large capital expense, more efficient work could be done by grading classes and money could be saved on salary expended. Buildings now used separately could be grouped centrally. Think this over for a week before you cuss the fool that made this suggestion.
